About R3

R3 is the thriving, inclusive organisation at the heart of the UK's insolvency and restructuring profession.

With over 3,000 members, we are the association which embraces the entire community of professionals within the UK restructuring and insolvency world, whatever the size of their practice, their experience or their specialism.

- R3 is a home for our community of members throughout their careers. You can find details of your 10 local R3 network and events across the nations and regions of the UK here.
- We give our members a united voice on the issues and legislation which affect them and the hundreds of thousands of businesses and individuals with whom they work. You can see details of our government and media work here.
- R3 brings the profession together to collaborate and share expertise. You can see details of our research here, our events here, and how to get involved in R3's committees here.
- R3 supports career-long learning and helps raise standards across the profession. You can see details of R3's courses here, and you can find our technical library here
- R3 plays a leading role in ensuring the UK remains a global centre for resolving financial distress, promoting economic regeneration, and maintaining integrity in our framework.

R3 in Scotland 2025

R3 in Scotland hosts a large calendar of events from technical to social that run throughout the year. In 2024, the events in this region had a reach of over 600 attendees from across the UK's leading insolvency and restructuring profession.

Sponsors can select from a range of packages including: Main (Saltire), Drinks (Tartan) and Entertainment or Prize (Thistle) sponsorships - gaining exceptional brand awareness over R3's platforms.

For sponsors interested in being represented across the programme of events we can develop bespoke proposals for a whole season sponsorship package.

R3 in Scotland

The committee chair for R3 in Scotland is Richard Bathgate, Partner at Johnston Carmichael. Details of all Scotland committee members can be found here.

R3's regional committees support local engagement with the insolvency and restructuring profession through a dedicated programme of activity and provide representation of the membership ensuring regional views are heard throughout R3 and beyond.
